PASTOR JUNE'S SEPTEMBER MESSAGE

“From whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly promotes the body’s growth in building itself up in love.”
(Ephesians 4:16)

The weather is slowly beginning to change and fall will be upon us very soon. I love this time of year! I love the cooler temperatures, falling leaves, and pumpkin spice everything! When I first entered into ministry almost 18 years ago, I have learned that fall also means that the church awakes from its summer slumber.

I’ve been thinking a lot about our upcoming Rally Day on September 8th. Partly because on that day so many of our fall programs begin. But also because I’ve been asked several times, “What is rally day?” Rally day is this:

- A day in the church where we rally together.
- A renewed energy and joy as we begin the new program year.
- As we return from summer, we renew our commitments and our joy.
- We celebrate all the things God is doing in our church and in our lives.

As part of Rally Day, this renewal is also meant to energize us. As we work together and grow together as the Body of Christ, we need that energy! There are so many ways that we can join together. We join in service, in fellowship, in discipleship, in outreach. And sometimes we might feel overwhelmed with all this energized activity. Built up in love! But don’t worry, it’s okay.

Our Ephesians text reminds us that it’s never one person alone in this life of Christ. We are all of us joined and knit together. And each doing our own part, each of us building and being built up in love. So even for me, as I look over the busy season ahead, I find myself renewed and filled with joy. God is doing so much through us. And we are working together to share God’s love with each other and with the world around us.

All are welcome to join this worship of celebration.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL PRESIDENT BOB BILLIG

It's hard to believe that it's September already. Where did the summer go? September usually means the end of vacations, the swimming pools closing, and kids going back to school. It also means that things here at FELC begin to ramp up again. There's the Rally Day Picnic and band concert, Sunday School starts again, our new organ will be installed soon and that means a dedication concert will soon follow. In September we also see our committees and other church activities more active. It takes a lot of people to make our church run, and most of them are our volunteers.

At the August council meeting, we have decided to be more accountable regarding our volunteer workers. We will be instituting a Volunteer Logbook that will ask people to record their volunteer time. Be it a worship assistant or lector, committee member or usher, we want to track all that our volunteers do to help keep FELC going. Then at the end of the year it is our intention to recognize our volunteers in some way. Watch for more information on this new initiative.

Music in Ministry

"O come and let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!"

-Psalm 95: 1-2

Worship and music are inseparable. The arts are a powerful medium for ministry, providing a vehicle for personal and corporate praise, prayer, and thanksgiving to God. Music speaks what cannot be expressed in words, thus soothing the mind, healing the heart, calming and uplifting the spirit. Music is a gift from God that flows from heaven to the soul. However great or small your talents, there is a place for you in our music ministry. I hope that this helps you to find a way to come out this fall to "make a joyful noise unto the Lord."

Musical opportunities include:

Bell Choir: (7th grade and up)

I look forward to NEW members joining us this year. Having the ability to read music is an advantage but if you are unable to read music and have an interest in playing, please do not be discouraged; come to a rehearsal and see what it is all about. If you were part of the bell choir last year you need not contact me, as I will count on you continuing playing with us, but if you are a potential new member that would be interested in playing please contact me BEFORE the first rehearsal for the purpose of assigning bells and ordering music.

Rehearsals-one night a week (Thursdays 6:15-7:15)

Location-Rhoads Room/Sanctuary

Ministry-rings once a month during the worship service and special events of the church season

Senior Choir: (9th grade and up)

Calling all who are interested in praising God in song! If you have not been in the choir before and are interested in joining us, please contact me BEFORE the first rehearsal, so that a folder is prepared for you.

Rehearsals-one night a week (Thursdays 7:30-8:30)

Location-Rhoads Room/Sanctuary

Ministry-weekly ministry for Sunday service and special events of the church season

Special Music:

Vocalists and instrumentalists for special musical offerings are welcomed. Solos, duets, trios, and small ensembles are valued anytime, but especially during the summer months. Please let me know if you are interested in sharing your special talent.

Instrumentalists:

There are Senior Choir anthems that sometimes have an accompaniment part that require various instrumentation (violin, trumpet, flute, drum, clarinet, etc.); if you would be interested in accompanying the Senior Choir on a particular instrument—please let me know what instrument it is that you play and what level you play at (beginner, intermediate, advanced).

***Rehearsals for ensembles occur on Thursday evenings-the FIRST rehearsal will take place on Thursday, September 5th.

If you took a break from music and are ready to come back, if you have never rung a bell or sung in a choir before, or if you have been part of the music ministry here for years; I look forward to glorifying God's name with you. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at home: jenniferkishbaugh@gmail.com (subject heading: FELC Music) or at 610-451-8660 (cell/text). ## Church in Society A Lutheran Perspective

What is the appropriate way for Lutheran Christians and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) as an institution to be active in society? Why and how should this church (members, congregations and other expressions) operate in the public arena? The very first social statement adopted by the ELCA, “Church in Society: A Lutheran Perspective,” provides these answers.

Because the gospel of Jesus Christ liberates us from sin, death and evil, the church as the body of Christ is freed to “love the neighbor” (Matthew 22:36ff). The call of God motivates the church to address society. The church confesses and teaches both law and gospel as the living word of the triune God. God’s activity in the world inevitably leads to participating in society and caring for the earth with all its creatures. This participation involves a commitment to justice (Amos 5:24).

The statement highlights the Lutheran teaching that God is at work in the “kingdom” of the civil realm primarily through the activity of the law. Family, education, economy, government and other social structures are the ways God restrains evil, protects from harm and upholds the common good. Christians are to respect the God-given integrity and tasks of these structures. Yet, since sin permeates them, too, they fall short of God’s intention for justice, peace and care of creation.

Lutherans understand that the church (the body of Christ) is “in,” but not “from,” the world. The church (all baptized people are the church!) through faith already takes part in the healing activity of God in Jesus. At the same time, it awaits the fulfillment of the whole creation and so lives in a tension between two ages — the present age and the age to come. Christians share a common destiny with the whole world in the coming reign of God and yet can never be fully at home in the world as it is. Christians must always be “restless.”

God’s restless church is called to serve and advocate in response to such diverse social situations as disasters, poverty, discrimination, social policies and economic arrangements. The statement says the church should keep enough critical distance from society to act, when appropriate, like the prophets of Scripture. Prophets challenged the culture, exposed the power of sin and idolatry, and spoke out on behalf of the poor and powerless. Christians are committed to society for the sake of all, and this means they must be ready to speak for change.

As organizations that live in the present and in the age to come, congregations, synods, agencies, institutions and churchwide organizations all have particular roles in addressing society. The churchwide organization, for instance, brings together task forces to lead the participatory process of creating social statements. However, the statement is quite clear that the primary way that the church carries out its responsibility in the world is through the everyday

LIFE OF ORDINARY CHRISTIANS

Every Christian is called through baptism to participate in society by doing good in the places of responsibility — marriage, family, work, school, volunteer associations, community organizations and political parties. Baptismal vocation is the primary way that God works through the church in the public arena. Because of this, congregations and other places of ministry sustain the baptismal vocation of ELCA members.

Christians fulfill their vocations in many ways and have many gifts. They will often disagree passionately on social questions. As a way of wrestling with social questions, the statement proposes the ELCA act as a “community of moral deliberation” (p. 5). Such a community looks together to Scripture as the normative source of faith and life and to the best knowledge available in the secular realm as it deliberates toward good actions and policies. Deliberation occurs in the context of those who disagree, and the voices of those who have an interest at stake or will suffer consequences are an integral part of that deliberation. It is in a public process guided by the Holy Spirit that Christians come to discern what action they should take when dealing with complicated issues.

Perspective: A paradigm for the future church
Life of Faith Initiative provides an alternative

By Craig L. Nesson July 8, 2024

Courtesy of ELCA
Living Lutheran

At the end of Christendom, the church is in crisis. The conditions that allowed the growth of the church until the 1960s have collapsed. While nostalgia for that era continues, there is no going back.

We hear widespread laments at the decline of the institutional church and despondency among church leaders. As a denomination, the ELCA has entered a time for housecleaning and making strategic decisions about the future. There are many proposals about where to invest our time, attention and resources.

The Life of Faith Initiative has assets that distinguish it as a paradigm for the future church. The Life of Faith movement provides an alternative to the church structures of previous generations.

Going “back to the future” involves reclaiming three core practices from the early church:

- Paying concentrated attention on forming the Christian people to be disciples in Jesus’ name (catechesis).
- Equipping the Christian people to share the faith through evangelical listening and speaking the gospel to others (evangelizing).
- Freeing the Christian people by the power of the gospel to participate in God’s work of repairing creation (diakonia).

Leaders need laser-like focus on forming the Christian people for discipleship, evangelizing and diakonia at all congregational gatherings. The Christian people (aka laity) need to become—again for the first time—the primary agents of the church in mission.

We need to invest in a paradigm shift that makes *the service by the baptized in their daily lives the central focus of the church's mission.

While Martin Luther imagined a universal priesthood of believers, this church model was never implemented. The future church will be a people's movement with pastors and deacons equipping them to be neighbors in daily life.

The Life of Faith Initiative reimagines a distinctive way forward toward the future church. The initiative:

- Focuses on a foundational paradigm change, not on introducing another program.
- Promotes a model of activating and equipping the Christian people to be the body of Christ instead of an attraction model that encourages members to support an institution.
- Employs small group processes that connect the affinities among church members.
- Cultivates culture change through the strategic use of coaching.
- Works with congregations of all sizes.

Shows demonstrated effectiveness in pilot congregations.

The crisis facing the church in North America cannot be addressed through programmatic efforts. The Life of Faith movement does not seek technical change through a quick fix but promotes adaptive change.

We need to invest in a paradigm shift that makes the service by the baptized in their daily lives the central focus of the church's mission. This requires shifting from the attraction model to the activation of the Christian people in service to neighbors in all arenas of their daily lives—family, workplace, school, local community and world. We need a fundamental transformation of the church's identity and mission.

The Lehigh Valley Conference of Churches offers resources to help individuals and families

The Lehigh Valley Conference of Churches 610 433 6421

We serve thousands of families and individuals living in the Lehigh Valley offering a continuum of care designed to meet basic human needs: food, a roof overhead, dignity, a sense of belonging and hope for the future.

The Conference Kitchen ensures that the working poor, homeless, elderly, children, people between jobs, individuals on fixed incomes, and those who have nowhere else to turn can receive a free nutritious meal, three times a day, five days a week.

Breakfast is served from 8:00 to 9:00 am, lunch from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm and dinner from 4:00 to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday.

The Conference Housing program builds a path in which those who are homeless, threatened with homelessness, or re-entering society from jail or prison can find stability in their lives. We offer rental assistance, utility deposits, furniture, and support enabling families and individuals to stay housed.

If you are in need of housing we ask that you meet with us so we can access your needs. No appointment is necessary. Visit us from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday at 457 W. Allen Street, Allentown.

We offer a myriad of supportive services to help individuals and families overcome the obstacles they face. Uniquely equipped staff meet people where they are and guide them through the steps to be successful with money management, job readiness, benefit enrollment, securing an ID, and apartment hunting.
